

Ensuring cultural relevance

HM Kani Consulting is a private consultancy specialising in cultural competency and workforce development.

Consultancy

- Cultural competency
- Solutions for challenging issues
- Workforce development

Workforce development

Since 2006, our consultants have specialised in providing strategic advice and workshops for professional development designed to give a full appreciation of cultural competency from a New Zealand perspective and the confidence to apply this knowledge in their field of practice. We facilitate workshops nationwide.

To find out more email: hkngaio@gmail.com

Kaupapa maioha cultural competency workshops

Suitable for all professions and organisations e.g., health and social service providers, district health boards, primary health organisations, local government; midwives, nurses, specialists, teachers, social workers, pharmacists, health workers; executive, management and customer service.

HM Kani Consulting

Business challenge

Developing a service delivery framework that recognizes and values our unique relationships with Māori.

Vitae solution

Partnership with HM Kani Consulting that ensures advice, training and support are accessible to Vitae customers.

Business benefits

- Builds confident teams
- Adds value to service delivery
- Creates new opportunities
- Brings alive goals and mission statements
- Enhances standards of practice

Henare Kani

Principal Consultant