

Tip sheet

Career development

Career development is an ongoing process of learning and growth. By taking proactive steps, you can enhance your skills, advance in your career and find greater satisfaction in your work.

Tips for career development

Set clear goals

Identify your career aspirations. Understand what you want to achieve in the short and long term.

Create a plan

Outline the steps needed to reach your career goals, including specific milestones and deadlines.

Regularly review and adjust

Periodically reassess your goals and progress, making adjustments as necessary.

Make use of opportunities

Put your hand up for new initiatives, projects or work that could stretch your talents and add more variety to your role.

Pursue further education

Take courses, attend workshops, or earn certifications related to your field.

Stay current

Keep up with industry trends and advancements through reading, webinars and professional associations.

Develop new skills

Learn new tools and technologies that can enhance your job performance.

Find a mentor

Connect with experienced professionals who can offer guidance and advice.

Improve your communication

Develop strong verbal and written communication skills to effectively convey ideas and collaborate.

Cultivate leadership

Take on leadership roles in projects or volunteer for management opportunities to build leadership experience.

Request feedback

Seek constructive feedback from supervisors and colleagues to identify areas for improvement. Use feedback and self-assessment insights to make necessary adjustments to your approach.

Contact

0508 664 981
assistance@vitae.co.nz
www.vitae.co.nz